

Our principles:

EPITA undertakes to offer French language tuition to all international students in order to optimise their linguistic and cultural integration in their daily lives, within the school and in the workplace.

Our values:

EPITA views the French language class as a multicultural meeting place and encourages exchanges and sharing between students.

EPITA provides language tuition based on a fun and effective method.

Our commitments:

To welcome its international students and provide language tuition, EPITA is committed as follows:

❖ Welcoming and assisting students

- ◆ Students are welcomed by a team speaking French and English,
- ◆ Transfers from/to the airport and accommodation are always proposed,
- ◆ Students can make complaints and assess the school's services via a suggestion box and satisfaction surveys handed out at the end of the session.

❖ Teaching

- ◆ All teachers are native French speakers, accredited and experienced in French language tuition,
- ◆ Teachers place students within the learning centre and use a communicative and proactive teaching approach,
- ◆ The courses proposed are based on the levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages,
- ◆ Students are placed in groups of no more than sixteen students according to their level,
- ◆ At the end of the cycle, all Masters students will sit an external assessment (TFI),
- ◆ Hybrid courses are offered, combining classroom-based classes and e-learning.

❖ The environment

- ◆ Classes are held on the premises using equipment suited to modern language learning methods.
- ◆ Students have access to a cafeteria that they share with the French students of EPITA and the other schools on the Campus.
- ◆ International students enjoy access to many student associations on the Campus.
